

Annual Report

2018-2019

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

President

Heather Staniszewski
Volunteer Services Manager
Fulton County Library System

Vice President and Treasurer

Monica Barnes
Arts Administration Specialist
Rialto Center for the Arts at
Georgia State University

Secretary

Julie Barwig
Coordinator
Keep Smyrna Beautiful

Past President

Tonya Howard Calhoun
Founder and CEO
Altruistically Yours, LLC

Membership Committee Chair

Debra Brook
Director of Volunteer Services
Kate's Club

Training and Development Chair

Terry Bushell
Advocate Recruiter
Fulton County CASA

Hospitality Chair

Paula Fine

Professional Network Liason

Shawan Allen
Corporate Responsibility
Cox Automotive

Public Relations Chair

Bre'shae Pittman
Volunteer Coordinator
Partnership Against Domestic Violence

Fund Development Committee Chair

Vacant

Nominations Chair

Vacant

Program Committee Chair

Vacant

Parliamentarian

Vacant

MEMBERSHIP

COVA provides its membership with an accessible forum for networking, knowledge-sharing, collaboration and leadership opportunities. COVA is an organization of Volunteer Administrators, Executive Directors, volunteer and community leaders, students, consultants, trainers and job seekers. Our purpose is to promote sound leadership and management practices and to support professional volunteer administration.

Member Benefits

- Monthly workshops on effective volunteer administration best practices
- Monthly information exchange on latest developments, trends and regulatory issues in volunteerism
- Website with news, member directory, resources, job listings and more
- Leadership, networking and professional development opportunities
- Reduced cost for the Annual COVA Conference
- Local and state recognition award opportunities

Annual membership dues covers breakfasts provided at monthly meetings, networking event outings, and administrative costs.

PROGRAMS

The purpose of COVA programs is to provide professional development opportunities for members focused on enhancing their ability to grow and sustain their volunteer programs and professional network. Opportunities include networking events, webinar resources provided in monthly e-newsletters, speaker panels, round table discussions, and service projects.

Member Meetings 2018-2019

August: Member Networking and Benefits Roundtable

September: Using Social Media to Maximize Volunteer Engagement featuring Jessi Ford Bacon and Christina Edwards of Be Consulting

October: COVA members encouraged to attend Georgia Association for Volunteer Administration (GAVA) Annual Conference on a discounted price

November: Building Capacity through Corporate Partnerships featuring Kaylah Walker, Turning Broadcasting and Sara Reed, Sage Foundation

December: Service Project with Fulton County CASA

January: Networking Event at Flying Biscuit with breakfast provided by COVA

February: Roundtable discussions about volunteer management best practices

May: Networking Event at Grub Burger

June: Retaining Volunteers in the Summer featuring Josh Todd, Atlanta Botanical Gardens and Lyle Davis, Children's Museum of Atlanta.

BY THE NUMBERS

47
YEARS

COVA has been dedicated to advancing the professional management of volunteers services since 1972.

8

Member meetings including networking opportunities, speaker panels, and round table discussions.

64

Total members comprising of volunteer administrators and community leaders.

7

Speakers providing professional expertise at meetings.

15

Percent discount to Georgia Association for Volunteer Administration Annual Conference.

8

E-newsletters providing relevant professional resources to members.

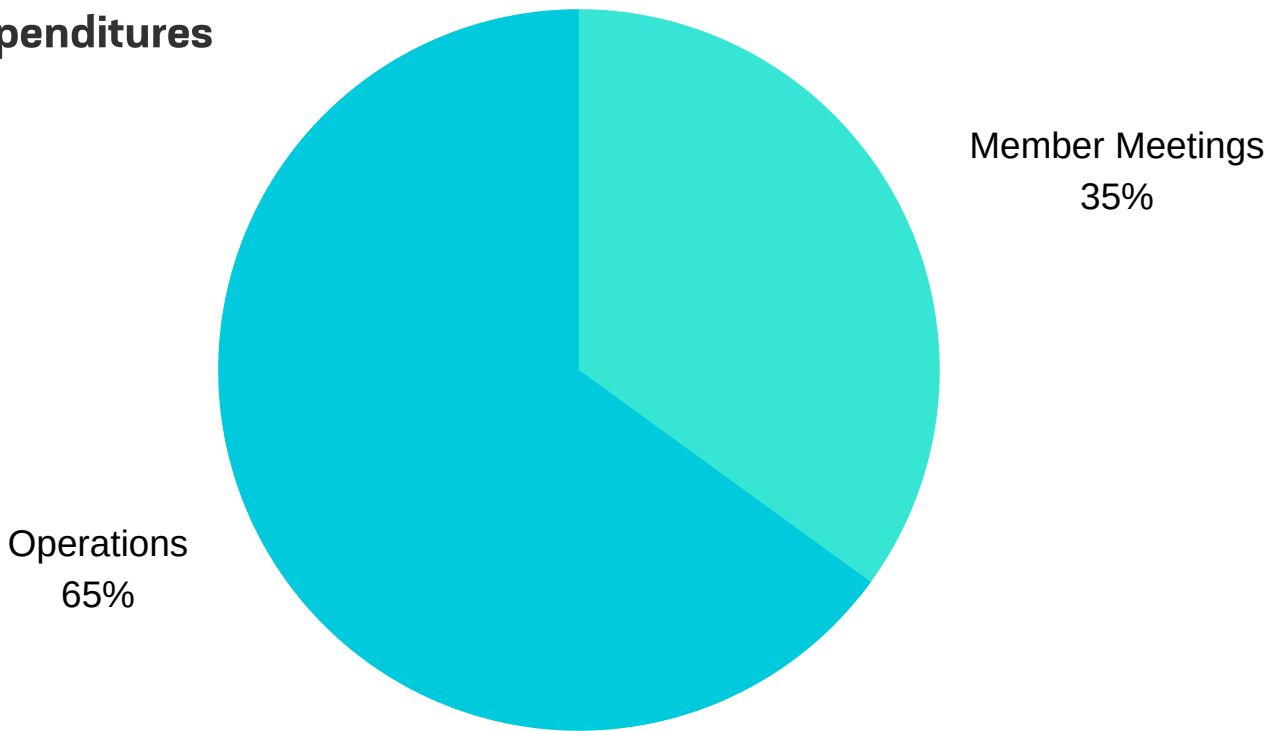

32

Professional resources provided in newsletters: webinars, volunteer fairs, and more.

FINANCIALS

Expenditures

Income

